The 2009-10 volume of the formal governing regulations of the University of Cambridge, annually updated.

This research collection presents a critical review of the materials used for learning English around the world. The first section includes a discussion of materials for specific learners and purposes, such as young learners, self-study, academic writing and general proficiency. The second section presents a detailed study of the materials used in Europe, Asia, North America, South America, Africa and Australia, and critically evaluates their effectiveness in the teaching of English to speakers of other languages. Taking both the teacher's and the learner's needs into consideration, the book makes a positive contribution to the future of research in materials development, and has practical applications. This comprehensive, critical analysis of materials in use around the world will be useful for academics researching materials development and applied linguistics and for students on post-graduate applied linguistics and ELT courses.

We are working with Cambridge Assessment International Education to gain endorsement for this forthcoming title. Provide students with a clear structured route through the qualification, with opportunities to assess their own progress, as well as reflect on and discuss new ideas and concepts. - Offer an international approach with a variety of text extracts from around the world. - Practise the approaches required for success with writing practice at the end of each unit varying from planning practice to one-paragraph answers, to analysis of example responses, to full longform exam-style responses. - Build skills with a range of solo, pair and groupwork activities that use a range of active learning methods. - Take learning further with extension activities and material to encourage a wider curiosity in the subject. - Consolidate learning with unit summaries, key definitions of Literature terminology and revision tips. - Support students in applying their learning to their own chosen texts with the set text focus section. - Suggested answers/answer frameworks for all written tasks in the Student's Book in our Teacher's Guide.
