Focused on the indigenous African belief that ethics and spiritual growth are irrevocably linked (Iwa Pele), this book provides clear direction for those interested in the spiritual path of Ifa. Filled with Techniques and Understandings for Beginners and Adepts alike, Iwa Pele continues to be a "Must Have" book for Western Ifa Followers to understand how and why the tradition is practiced. It is with great excitement that we welcome this second edition of what has become a classic in Yoruba literature. In this ground breaking book, Babalawo Falokun Fatunmbi continues the work of Yoruba writers such as Dr. Wande Abimbola and others in unmasking the deep cosmological and theological principles of the Yoruba people. This exposition of the theology of the Yoruba people challenges the prevailing prejudicial assumptions regarding the depth, beauty and relevance of African theological thought. Titled "Iwa Pele," this book focuses on the indigenous African belief that ethics and spiritual growth are irrevocably linked. Written in a highly accessible manner and in a style easily assimilated by the Western mind, this great work also provides sensible direction for those wishing to embark on the spiritual path of Ifa. Each chapter provides instruction for the adept on Ifa/orisa veneration as done in the traditional manner.

Ama Mazama: The Ogunic Presence in Africology is a critical analysis of the ideas of Ama Mazama, a prominent and leading female theorist in Africology and African American Studies. Molefe Asante studies the creative and productive power of Mazama's intellectual work as it emerges from the personal wrestling with spiritual elements of consciousness as well as Mazama's attention to ancestral and perhaps epigenetic relationships to African spirituality in the making of theory and practice. Painting a picture of an activist intellectual concerned as much with mental as well as spiritual liberation, Asante demonstrates how and why Ama Mazama has evolved into one of the most popular Africologists in the field.

Collects almost five hundred entries that cover the African response to spirituality, taboos, ethics, sacred space, and objects.

.....The "ALAAFIN" is elected from among many eligible members of the Royal Family by a Powerful Society of Yoruba Noblemen know as the "Oyo Mesi", the seven principal councilors of state. There have been 43 "Alaafin", all drawn from the Same Dynasty which has ruled The Yoruba for over 2,000 years. Before he is crowned "OBA", The "Alaafin-elect" must become a Priest, usually a Priest of "SANGO", the Deified "Fourth King of The Yoruba", and "Third Alaafin of OYO", who is worshipped as "The THUNDERGOD". The "Alaafin" has as much Spiritual as well as purely Political work to perform being at once "King" and "Priest" of the State.....The West African political system was "Communal Socialism", in which the vital means of production belonged to each separate Community, which in turn was united with a larger aggregate such as the Provincial State, which was in turn united with a Central State..... The Old Yoruba Empire distinguished itself in The World, with Three very distinctive and unique models.First, it evolved a wonderfully developed Constitution, though Unwritten, the average Yoruba man is governed by strong convention.Secondly, the Yoruba evolved a Military System that allows them to develop Weaponry. The Yorubas are the first to smith Iron and thus, they built foundries from where they also produced agricultural implements to boost food production.Thirdly, the Yoruba Race, evolved a very practical method of Administration, by adopting the Cabinet System of governance. So, as far back as the 16th Century, the Old "OYO" Empire developed the Cabinet System of Government. And from the Prime Minister, to "The Alaafin", and the various Divisional Heads, all tiers have their Roles and Responsibilities clearly spelt out and adhered to, with Separation of Powers and inputs for checks and balances.....The Legend of "The GOD OF THUNDER", The Great King "SANGO", 4th King of The Yoruba, 3rd "ALAAFIN" of The Ancient City of "OYO", is a tale of Command. "OYO" the Ancient Political Capital of the "Yoruba", took its rise somewhere in the 8th Century. "OYO" was founded by "ORANMIYAN" a grandson of "ODUDUWA, the Father of the "Yoruba" Nation. "Oranmiyan" was succeeded by "AJUAN, AJAKA" who proved too mild for the aggressive,conquering temperament of his times. The people rejected "Ajuan" in favor of his more flamboyant, warlike brother "SANGO, OLUFINRAN".

Van Gennep was the first observer of human behaviour to note that the ritual ceremonies that accompany the landmarks of human life differ only in detail from one culture to another, and that they are in essence universal. Originally published in English in 1960. This edition reprints the paperback edition of 1977.

A literary analysis of the Yoruba oral tradition known as Ifa. The first part of the book deals with the cultural background, and explores the divining process. The second part of the book is an analysis of the form of Ifa texts, including the stylistic features of the poetic language. Also discusses the concept of predestination in Yoruba belief as well as in the Yoruba cosmos.

This book won The Noma Award for Publishing in Africa in 2001. The jury describes it thus: 'The work is an outstanding and significant cultural document, and an important part of the movement of cultural reclamation from within Africa. It assumes direct intellectual responsibility by the Yoruba for their collective history and culture; and extends the scope of Ifa studies in a new and original way...the author displays deep familiarity with indigenous sources, living practitioners and scholarly literature. The book, the product of thirty year's work, will stand as a benchmark for years to come.'
