REA's All Access study system is made up of 3 components: the review book, practice at REA's Online Study Center, and e-flashcards. By combining our book, web, and mobile tools, students can personalize their AP prep, focus on the topics where they need extra study, and get a higher score. /Written by an AP expert and fully aligned with the new exam, our review covers what AP French students need to know for the listening, reading, writing, and speaking portions of the exam. An online audio component provides excellent preparation for the exam's listening comprehension section. /After studying the review, students go online and take mini-tests to identify areas in need of further study. Detailed score reports help students pinpoint strengths and weaknesses. /Accessible from any computer or smartphone, 100 e-flashcards cover all the topics on the exam. Students can create their own flashcards to review subjects that give them difficulty.

This edition contains 220 pages of exercises developed to meet the general objectives of an advanced French language course, as well as to help students prepare for the Educational Testing Service's Advanced Placement French Language Examination, including the latest changes in the speaking section. One of "our most insightful social observers"* cracks the great political mystery of our time: how conservatism, once a marker of class privilege, became the creed of millions of ordinary Americans With his acclaimed wit and acuity, Thomas Frank turns his eye on what he calls the "thirty-year backlash"—the populist revolt against a supposedly liberal establishment. The high point of that backlash is the Republican Party's success in building the most unnatural of alliances: between blue-collar Midwesterners and Wall Street business interests, workers and bosses, populists and right-wingers. In asking "what 's the matter with Kansas?"—how a place famous for its radicalism became one of the most conservative states in the union—Frank, a native Kansan and onetime Republican, seeks to answer some broader American riddles: Why do so many of us vote against our economic interests? Where's the outrage at corporate manipulators? And whatever happened to middle-American progressivism? The questions are urgent as well as provocative. Frank answers them by examining pop conservatism—the bestsellers, the radio talk shows, the vicious political combat—and showing how our long culture wars have left us with an electorate far more concerned with their leaders' "values" and down-home qualities than with their stands on hard questions of policy. A brilliant analysis—and funny to boot—What's the Matter with Kansas? presents a critical assessment of who we are, while telling a remarkable story of how a group of frat boys, lawyers, and CEOs came to convince a nation that they spoke on behalf of the People. *Los Angeles Times
