I thought I could do this. I thought I could leave the war behind. I was wrong. I can ' t do this. I can ' t go to class and pretend like everything is normal. That I ' m normal. I ' m not. I ' ve lost everything that matters to me. But I made a promise. And if I ' m going to keep that promise, I have to focus. I have to pretend that I belong on this southern campus that drips with old money. And I have to pass stats. That ' s where Beth comes in. I ' m terrified she ' ll see through me. That the careful lies and easy smile won ' t be enough to convince her that everything is fine. That she ' ll see how broken I really am. But there ' s something about her that draws me closer. A sadness in her eyes that am powerless to resist. I should walk away. Protect her from the broken, darkness in me. Before we both fall into something neither of us can control Stay focused. Get a job. Save her father ' s life. Beth Lamont knows far too much about the harsh realities of life her gilded classmates have only read about in class. She ' ll do whatever it takes to take care of her father, even if that means tutoring a guy like Noah - a guy who represents everything she hates about the war, soldiers and what the Army has done to her family. Noah Warren doesn ' t know how to be a student. All he knows is war. But he ' s going to college now to fulfill a promise and he doesn ' t break his promises. Except he doesn ' t count on his tutor being drop dead gorgeous and distracting as hell. One look at Beth threatens to unravel the careful lies Noah has constructed around him. A simple arrangement turns into something neither of them can deny. And a war that neither of them can forget could destroy them both.

Violence. I ' m addicted to it. It ' s how I feel alive. It ' s the only thing that ' s real any more. And now I have to sit around and discuss it like it ' s physics or calculus. I can ' t do it. I can ' t pretend that it ' s some sterile academic topic. Violence isn ' t sterile. It isn ' t calm. It ' s pulsing. It ' s alive. It ' s my drug. Until I met Abby, I never wanted anything beyond the next fight. Never considered that I might finally find a way back to the land of the living. Now? Now I find myself dreaming of a woman with golden eyes. But I can never be with her. Because I am not whole. And I never will be again. But I cannot stay away. And loving her might finally be what breaks me.

Running from the demons of his past, he ' s given the his men everything, hiding the worry and fear beneath a gruff exterior. Nothing will stand in the way of him taking care of his men — especially not some direct commission head doc who can barely put on her uniform. Running from a past that never accepted her, she ' s looking for a place to belong. Emily isn ' t fooled by Reza ' s rough, angry exterior.
