life—particularly not strong-willed, close-mouthed, drop-dead gorgeous Jed McCall. Jed doesn't want a wife. He's raising his nephew, Tuck, just fine by himself, thank you very much. And when beautiful, tempting Brenna comes back to take over her father's ranch, Jed wants nothing more than to keep her out of his life. Tuck has a better idea... But he doesn't know about the past they share—one that Jed doesn't want to remember and Brenna can't forget. When life throws them together again, Brenna discovers that Jed matters more than she wishes he would. And try as he will, Jed can't get Brenna out of his mind. Yes, they have a past. But the question now is: can they have a future?

wife is a challenge eight-year-old Becky Jones takes seriously. Ex-rodeo cowboy Taggart Jones is adamant. No marriage. Been there. Done that. Not even if Becky's dream candidate is her beautiful, blonde teacher, Felicity Albright, who knows about barrettes, patching up scrapes, and hates carrots as much as his daughter. Taggart ' s still not interested. Much. What's a daughter to do? Becky ' s nothing if not ingenious, and she ' s determined to convince a stubborn Taggart and a bemused Felicity that they really have met their match.

how to run a ranch. Worse, Maggie MacLeod was a beautiful feisty redhead with flashing eyes and kissable lips — a woman who could tempt a saint. Tanner was far from a saint. He didn't do permanent, he didn't do relationships. The smart thing would be to leave. But a man was only as good as his word. Trouble was, the longer he stayed, the more Maggie got under his skin...

Mr. Stubborn. Mace Nichols is an 'I'll die with my boots on' cowboy. Old-school. Tough, silent and honorable. Which is why he's leaving his wife, Jenny. She has helped him build his dream—the Montana ranch they loved. Now he can't give her the family she's always dreamed of, so he has no choice: he needs to set her free. It makes perfect sense to him. It doesn't make a bit of sense to Jenny! She loves her stubborn, bull-headed husband. She admires his courage, his tenacity and his determination to always Do The Right Thing—even if, in this case, it is the stupidest thing he's ever done. Mace is right—Jenny has always wanted a family. But she wants a family with Mace! How can she convince the most honorable, stubborn man in the world what really matters in life? First published as A Cowboy's Tears

Code of the West LONESOME COWBOY Mace Nichols had everyone scratching their heads. After years of marital bliss, he'd up and walked out on Jenny. Why? He wouldn't say. Just that Jenny would be better off. Even little Becky Jones didn't know what to make of her cowboy hero. That man! He was as talkative as his horse—and as stubborn as a mule. Jenny knew why he'd left. But she'd vowed to love Mace for better, for worse...forever. But even she didn't know how to teacher her hurt, stubborn cowboy not to give up their dream—of a ranch, a home, a family—and to trust that their love could still make it real....

Rodeo cowboy Noah Tanner spent his life going down the road. He never stopped. He never stayed –until rehab from an accident stuck him in Laramie, Wyoming over the holidays. So, fine. He ' d stay with Tess. Who better to spend Christmas with than the gorgeous nurse who ' d patched him up once before? Once Tess Montgomery had loved Noah. She still had him to thank for her greatest gift —

Susannah — the child Noah never knew he had. Then Noah met Susannah, and his world changed. But could a footloose cowboy settle down? Be a dad? Show the only woman he ' d ever loved that this time he was here to stay? Or was it too late? Would Tess ever trust him with her heart again?

An innocent seduction? Gibson Walker was appalled when Chloe Madsen came to work for him. He'd only agreed to employ her as a favor—he had no time to baby-sit an innocent small-town girl. So why was he finding himself tormented by Chloe's shy beauty—and infuriated that she didn't even notice him? Chloe didn't dare notice Gib. She was already engaged, and only in New York for the summer. Besides, Gibson Walker was exactly the sort of man mothers
