This was Davis Alfieri, after all. Rumor had it that he could afford the moon if he wanted it. It was whispered that this tall, dark, handsome financial guru owned a palace in Saudi Arabia, a penthouse in London, New York and Tokyo and had a fabulous house in Atlanta. Obscene wealth and harsh, good looks, she thought, actually licking her lips. The two were rarely in one package.

emotions. If her father ever found out that she painted, he would be disgusted with her. When she meets Davis Alfieri, those emotions take a dangerous, terrifying turn, releasing the pent up passion she 'd been pretending wasn't inside of her.

While strolling the runways of Milan, Andie sees him and her heart begins to race. There is just something about the man that changes her world, makes everything brighter and happier. The more she gets to know Antonio, the more she falls in love with him. When their relationship reaches a physical crescendo, she tells him how her heart has fallen for him, thinking that he feels the same way. Unprepared, and suffering from a painful history with love, Antonio's faltering response breaks her heart. Andie feels like she has finally met the heartless tycoon that everyone describes. Although he isn't able to respond in kind, Antonio feels far more than he would like when the lovely Andie professes her love for him. He knows that he wants to protect her, that he doesn't want her to leave him, but he isn't ready to be that vulnerable again. Her departure leaves him empty, until one day she shows up at his office, scared, too thin, still painfully beautiful...and pregnant. This time around, he is determined to keep her with him. He doesn't know what he feels, but he knows that he can't live without her.

Adriana hates Mitch as a boss, but can't keep her eyes off of him. He drives her crazy, wanting to go over every detail of her work, but...she finds herself wondering what he looks like underneath his impressive suits. How is she to maintain her dislike of the man when her body is telling her that she is lying to herself? Mitch is blown away by Adriana. His attraction to her can no longer be ignored, and he senses that she feels it too. He finally breaks down her defenses, countering all of her arguments about why they shouldn't be together and showing her, in great detail, how incredible they are together. So why does she become so angry when he tells her he won't share her with anyone else?

As a southern belle, Georgette has certain standards she must maintain. But when Dylan walks into the ballroom, all of her southern manners and poise are unable to hold up under his heated stare. She can't believe a Yankee could break through her walls so completely, but she must maintain her distance. She has goals of her own and she can't let some man, no matter how delicious he might be, interfere with those goals. Dylan can't believe that the lovely lady is even trying to ignore her passionate side. She is sensual and funny, intelligent and passionate. And when they touch, they set each other on fire. So why is she running away from such a perfect union?

They shared only one night of passion, but the memory of it has stayed with Damien ever since. He'd searched for her for months, but even with his considerable resources, with only her first name to go on, he'd been unsuccessful. Now, six years later, Damien is speechless when he finds Jemma by chance on a farm in the rolling hills of the Virginia countryside. The woman he has sought for so long, and yet she won't come with him now? But Damien won't give up so easily. Damien's appearance after so many years rocks Jemma's comfortable, if simple existence. He has never left her memory either - how could he with such a visible reminder? Her son - their son - Dylan is now a precocious five, and the light of her life. Although Damien didn't recognize him, Jemma feels honor bound to tell him about his son. But how will he react? Will he try to take Dylan away?

Are you curious about what happened to Sierra ' s brother Daniel from The Duke ' s Blackmailed Bride? Or whether Livia ' s father Dan Morgan from The Russian ' s Runaway Bride ever had to face the music? This novella answers these questions and does so much more. It features a fully grown Daniel working on the streets of London as a police detective and the saucy shop owner named Ella who mistakenly confronts him while trying to stand up for her fellow shop owners. Enjoy both the steamy romance and the suspense as Elizabeth Lennox completes The Boarding School Series with this fast, fun, and free romp.

Trapped by a promise to his sister to not seduce "Jo", Prince Rais del Abbas Samara is stunned when Jo turns out to be "Joline" and she ' s beautiful. He adheres to the letter of the promise through the end of the weekend, but once Joline is back in New York, all bets are off. Joline can't believe how raw and powerful her best friend's brother turns out to be. Unfortunately, his position as Minister of Finance and her family history make it impossible to follow through on the attraction she feels for the incredible man. He might be everything she could ever want in a mate, but he ' s off limits. However, Rais is not one to be easily deterred – he ' s determined to have Joline as his wife. Joline is just as resolved to avoid matrimony to the commanding prince. But how is she to resist him when he sets her blood on fire every time he walks into a room?

Needing space and a breath of fresh air, Prince Turken del Abbas Samara, Kilar ' s Minister of Defense, slips out of the palace alone, never suspecting that the rebels would be watching. But Turk ' s capture proved that he had not been as stealthy as he ' d thought. Fortunately, he ' s brought to a doctor with silver eyes, a tender touch and a body that he would love to possess. Fate has brought Doctor Raven Bishop to his side, and he ' s determined not to fight it. She is too delectable to resist. Raven couldn ' t believe the giant man that had been brought into her surgery. But as he recovered, she found herself lying to protect him, fearing for his safety. Unfortunately, in saving Turk ' s life, she finds herself swept away with his escape. The protector becomes the captive. But how can a relationship work between someone who saves lives and a soldier who ' s prepared to take them?

Their story began five years ago. Callie fell madly, crazily in love with Zahir. But the war in his country was raging and nurturing their relationship was tenuous at best. When Callie was captured, the experience was terrifying. Zahir found and rescued her, but he knew it would be impossible to insulate her from danger in his country. Despite his wishes to be together, he knew that to keep her safe he must send her away. However, he wouldn ' t let her go until she was his bride. In a secret wedding, he married her, and then spirited her to safety. She arrived in her haven traumatized, fearful, homeless...and pregnant. Slowly, she rebuilt her life, gave birth to her son and somehow learned to get on with living without Zahir. For five long years, Callie recovered from the nightmare of her captivity. And she raises her son. When Zahir enters her life once more, she can ' t believe that the fire between them is hotter than before. But she refuses to give in, despite its intensity. She ' s too afraid that the peace between the previously warring countries will end and that she or her son could be in peril again. She yearns to feel safe, but can she defy her heart or deny her son his father?
