In questo affascinante viaggio compiuto nell'universo latomistico, abbiamo incontrato ben 33 liberi muratori provenienti da 15 nazioni diverse, di cui 5 italiani, che si sono conquistati il prestigiosissimo premio Nobel: Giosue Carducci nel 1906, per la Letteratura; Camillo Golgi nello stesso anno, per la Medicina; Ernesto Teodoro Moneta nel 1907, per la Pace; Enrico Fermi nel 1938, per la Fisica; Salvatore Quasimodo nel 1959, per la Letteratura. Questo lavoro intende essere, con semplicità e senza forzature di sorta, l'ennesima prova della grande levatura, del talento, dell'originalità, della sapienza, di tanti uomini appartenenti alla massoneria internazionale che hanno contribuito in modo decisivo al bene dell'umanità.
